

Private Collections Salon & Sale
Aug. 19 – Sept. 23, 2023

Jackson Fine Art is delighted to announce our ninth annual Private Collections Salon & Sale opening on Saturday, August 19th. This yearly event, with works that rival a large auction house sale, is a highlight for the gallery and has gained a strong following over the last eight years. The exhibition includes over 120 works by 77 notable 20th-century and contemporary photographers, and will be on view both in our newly-expanded Buckhead gallery and in a virtual online viewing room. The gallery will be offering sought-after iconic images by classic photographers including Ansel Adams, Richard Avedon, Henri Cartier-Bresson, and Irving Penn, as well as sold-out works by contemporary photographers such as Katy Grannan, Adam Fuss, Sally Mann and more. One example of the offering highlights is a Robert Rauschenberg unique Polaroid diptych from his Bleacher series. Included within the exhibition is a uniquely Southern collection featuring a mix of work by Atlanta-based artists, 20th-century American icons, and cutting-edge international photographers such as Roger Ballen, Sheila Pree Bright, William Christenberry, William Eggleston, Adam Fuss, Kojo Griffin, Sarah Hobbs, William Klein, Loretta Lux, and more.

Robert Rauschenberg, from the Bleacher Series: Captiva Beach House, 1991

Exhibition curator Malia Schramm, Director of Secondary Markets, has nearly 25 years experience with the gallery, and specializes in secondary market consignments and sales, along with collector cultivation and education. She comments, “In addition to the evolution of the medium of photography over the last 200 years, there has been an undeniable recent shift in its acceptance as fine art. Once dismissed as a mere technical invention devoid of artistic value, photography now rivals other fine art and has become one of the most desired mediums for collecting. Our over 30-year commitment to the medium of photography has given us the unique privilege of working with some of the most extraordinary, artists, artist estates, colleagues, collectors, and collections. The offerings in this exhibition come from private collections old and new and span over much of the history of photography. It is an honor to be entrusted with the stewardship of artworks from one collection to another.”

Contact

To arrange interviews with Malia Schramm or request high resolution images, please contact malia@jacksonfineart.com.

The newly-expanded Jackson Fine Art is now located at 3122 East Shadowlawn Ave. NE, Atlanta, GA 30305. For more information about the gallery and our artists, visit jacksonfineart.com.